"Before a brief moment of prayer, may I read some of the relevant words of Paul written many centuries ago in a letter to the Romans: 'Let love be without dissimulation. Abhor that which is evil, cleave to that which is good. Be kindly affectioned one to another, with brotherly love, in honor, preferring one another. Not slothful in business, fervent in spirit, serving the Lord. Rejoicing in hope, patient in tribulation, continuing instant in prayer.' May we pray.

Dear Father, on this legislative day to be filled with excitement, give us a faith and hope as we approach opportunity, give us a power of patience as we look at the trials and tests before us, and help us to be without ceasing in prayer as we ask for mercy and guidance in all that we do. Amen."
